Tri-Challenge All Ages Versatility

Open to all exhibitors! A combination between Showmanship, Hunt Seat Equitation (on the rail), and Western Command Class. The arena will be cut off to allow a holding area inside the main show arena.

1. A Showmanship pattern will be provided to exhibitors as they enter the arena. When their pattern is complete, exhibitors are excused from the showing area to complete the first tack change but must remain in the holding area. 2. Hunt Seat Equitation will be judged as a group on the rail and may include the judge calling for maneuvers commonly seen in Equitation patterns including picking up correct diagonals, pivots, and transitions. It will be judged on the rider's form and effectiveness in all gaits. 3. Tack change in the area. All exhibitors will line up in the arena, grooms ready at the gate, exhibitors must remain on their horse until the timer begins. 5 minute limit, one groom per horse permitted, wheelbarrows allowed to change to western attire. 4. Western Command (often called "Simon Says") is a rail class where exhibitors must precisely execute the judge's real-time maneuvers. Requested elements may include the walk, jog, lope, gait extensions, pivots, sidepasses, and lead changes. This is an elimination-style event, any break of gait, missed maneuver, or excessive delay will have the horse called to the center by the judges until there is one horse remaining. Horses will be placed in this portion as they are eliminated.

Scoring: 30% Showmanship, 30% Equitation, 10% Tack Change, 30% Western

Ranch Disciplined Rail: Open to all exhibitors! A rail class evaluating a ranch horse's quality of movement, manners, and precision response to the judge's commands. In addition to basic ranch gaits (walk, trot, extended trot, lope, and extended lope), exhibitors may be asked for specialized disciplined maneuvers including but limited to: immediate transitions, side-passing, pivots, counter-canter, lead changes, and standing quietly on a loose rein. Judged on the horse's obedience, timely transitions, and willingness as a working partner. Standard ranch apparel, tack, and grooming rules apply.
